Appendix

Mass shooting incidents, January 2009–December 2016

The following incidents are presented in reverse chronological order. Information comes from police and court records, or media reports when no records were available.

Chicago, IL, 12/17/2016

Four people were shot and killed and one person was shot and injured in a home in the Fernwood neighborhood of Chicago. The identity of the shooter remains unknown.

Shooter name: Unknown

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Unknown

GVRO red flag: Unknown

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Los Angeles, CA, 10/15/2016

A dispute involving multiple shooters led to four people being fatally shot and 11 more being shot and injured. The shooting took place during a birthday party, at a home that also served as an underground restaurant in the West Adams neighborhood of Los Angeles. Though investigators suspect multiple shooters were involved, only Marlon Jones has been charged in connection with the crime.

Shooter name: Marlon Jones (alleged)

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Marlon Jones was likely prohibited from possessing firearms as he was believed to be living in the United States illegally, according to the FBI.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Jones exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Burlington, WA, 09/23/2016

Arcan Cetin, 20, allegedly shot and killed five people at the Cascade Mall. Cetin fled the mall in a vehicle, and was arrested by police after a 24-hour manhunt.

Shooter name: Arcan Cetin, 20 (alleged)

Gun details: .22-caliber Ruger rifle

Gun acquired: Cetin's stepfather owned a .22-caliber Ruger rifle and told detectives the weapon was missing from his home.

Prohibiting criteria: Cetin was likely prohibited from possessing firearms. In November 2015, he attempted suicide and was involuntarily committed at Fairfax Hospital, an inpatient psychiatric facility in Kirkland, WA.

GVRO red flag: In addition to his November 2015 suicide attempt, Cetin exhibited several warning signs in advance of the shooting. In the spring of 2015, Cetin was accused of sexually touching two female classmates at Oak Harbor High. A month later, he was arrested for misdemeanor domestic violence assault after an argument with his stepfather.

Gun-free zone: Cascade Mall, which is owned by the Macerich Group, prohibits the carrying of all weapons, including firearms, on the property as a term of their corporate code of conduct.

Sinking Spring, PA, 08/06/2016

Mark Short, 40, fatally shot his wife and their three children –ages 2 to 8 –before fatally shooting himself.

Shooter name: Mark Short, 40

Gun details: Handgun

Gun acquired: Short bought the gun from a licensed dealer in Lancaster County, PA approximately two weeks before the shooting.

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest Short was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: Approximately two weeks before the shooting, police responded to a call from Short's wife, who indicated she was afraid of her husband.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Dallas, TX, 07/07/2016

Micah Johnson, 25, fatally shot five police officers and shot and injured nine more people during a protest in downtown Dallas. After the shooting subsided, Johnson hid in a parking garage, holding off police for hours. The police killed him the following morning, using an explosive delivered by a remote-controlled robot.

Shooter name: Micah Johnson, 25

Gun details: Izhmash-Saiga 5.45mm rifle, 9mm handgun, .25-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: Investigators believe Johnson acquired the guns legally, either online or at a gun show.

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Johnson was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Johnson exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: Under Texas law, the open and concealed carrying of firearms was lawful at the protest. There were several armed individuals at the protest.

Las Vegas, NV, 06/29/2016

Jason Dej-Odoum, 34, fatally shot his wife outside a Walgreens store. He then fatally shot their three children –ages 9 to 15 –in the family's apartment before fatally shooting himself.

Shooter name: Jason Dej-Odoum, 34

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest Dej-Odoum was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: Dej-Odoum's wife had applied for a protective order weeks before the shooting, but it was denied. In the protective order application, she alleged that Dej-Odoum had threatened the family with guns many times in the past. The application also suggests that Dej-Odoum threatened his children in conversation with his wife approximately three weeks before the shooting.

Not a gun-free zone: The shootings took place outside a Walgreens store and in a private home. Neither location would prohibit the carrying of firearms.

Roswell, NM, 06/12/2016

Juan David Villegas-Hernandez, 34, allegedly shot and killed his wife and four children, ages 7 to 14, in the family's home.

Shooter name: Juan David Villegas-Hernandez, 34 (alleged)

Gun details: .22-caliber rifle

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Villegas-Hernandez was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: Days before the shooting, Villegas-Hernandez threatened to kill his wife, according to her brother. There was a history of abuse in the relationship, and Villegas-Hernandez's wife had recently asked for a divorce.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Orlando, FL, 06/12/2016

Omar Mateen, 29, fatally shot 49 people and shot and wounded 53 more at Pulse, a gay nightclub in Orlando. After the initial attack, Mateen held the people inside the club hostage for approximately three hours before police raided the club. Over a dozen police officers and sheriff's deputies engaged in a shootout with Mateen, shooting him fatally.

Shooter name: Omar Mateen, 29

Gun details: Sig Sauer MCX assault rifle, 9mm handgun

Gun acquired: Mateen legally purchased the guns from a Florida gun store about a week before the shooting.

Prohibiting criteria: The FBI had investigated Mateen for possible ties to terrorism, but eventually closed the investigation because agents concluded he was not a threat. This would not have prevented the shooter from buying or having firearms as the FBI currently has no authority to block gun sales to suspected terrorists.

GVRO red flag: There were several signs that Mateen was potentially dangerous. His ex-wife alleged that Mateen beat her before their divorce in 2011. A man who was Mateen's colleague in 2014 and 2015 said that he had violent tendencies and that he threatened to kill people.

Gun-free zone: Pulse nightclub was a gun-free zone under Florida law, which prohibits permit holders from carrying concealed handguns in bars and other venues that primarily serve alcohol.

Appling, GA, 4/22/2016

Wayne Anthony Hawes, 50, fatally shot five adults before fatally shooting himself. The shooting was related to a domestic dispute, with Hawes killing three of his girlfriend's family members.

Shooter name: Wayne Anthony Hawes, 50

Gun details: .357 magnum revolver, and shotgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest Hawes was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: Hawes' girlfriend reported a long and ongoing history of verbal and physical abuse, as well as alcohol abuse.

Not a gun-free zone: This shooting took place between three private homes.

Pike County, OH, 04/22/2016

Eight members of the same family were shot and killed between four homes in the Piketon, OH area. No arrests have been made, and the identity of the shooter(s) is unknown. There were marijuana grow operations found at three of the crime scenes, though it is unknown if this was related to the shooting.

Shooter name: Unknown

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Unknown

GVRO red flag: Unknown

Not a gun-free zone: The shootings took place between 4 private homes.

Wilksburg, PA, 03/09/2016

Cheron Shelton, 29, and Robert Thomas, 27, allegedly shot and killed five people and shot and injured three more at a backyard cookout. Officials believe the shooting was retaliation for another shooting in 2013.

Shooter names: Cheron Shelton, 29, and Robert Thomas, 27 (alleged)

Gun details: 7.62-caliber assault rifle, .40-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Both Shelton and Thomas were prohibited from possessing firearm, because of their history of violent felony convictions. Shelton also had a 2009 felony drug conviction which prohibited him.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence that Shelton or Thomas exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place at a private home.

Kansas City, KS, 03/07/2016

Pablo Antonio Serrano-Vitorino, 40, allegedly shot and killed four men in Kansas City, KS; at least one of these men lived in the house next door to him. The next day he fatally shot another man at that man's home in Montgomery County, MO. A police manhunt ended in his arrest.

Shooter name: Pablo Antonio Serrano-Vitorino, 40 (alleged)

Gun details: A shotgun was used in the Kansas City shootings; an assault rifle was used in the Montgomery County shootings.

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Serrano-Vitorino was prohibited from possessing firearms because, according to media reports, he was in the United States illegally.

GVRO red flag: In June 2015, Serrano-Vitorino was charged after allegedly punching his brother in the face.

Not a gun-free zone: The shootings took place between two private homes.

Belfair, WA, 02/26/2016

David Wayne Campbell, 51, fatally shot his wife, her two sons, a neighbor, and then himself.

Shooter name: David Wayne Campbell, 51

Gun details: Handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Campbell was likely prohibited from possessing firearms due to past felony and misdemeanor convictions in Pennsylvania, including theft by deception and forgery.

GVRO red flag: One of Campbell's former employees alleged that Campbell pulled a gun on him, and threatened to kill him in July 2015.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Phoenix, AZ, 02/23/2016

Alex Arthur Buckner, 26, fatally shot his parents and his two sisters in the family's home. He set fire to the house before being fatally shot by responding police officers.

Shooter name: Alex Arthur Buckner, 26

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: The gun used in the shooting belonged to Buckner's father, one of the victims.

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Buckner was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence that Buckner exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO. His family members noted that he had been treated for drug abuse in the past, but it is unclear exactly when this occurred.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Kalamazoo, MI, 02/20/2016

Jason Brian Dalton, 45, allegedly shot and killed six people and injured two more in a spree shooting. The first shooting took place in the parking lot of an apartment building; a woman was critically injured, but survived. The second shooting –in the parking lot of a car dealership –killed a man and his 17-year-old son. And the third shooting –in the parking lot of a Cracker Barrel restaurant –killed four women and injured a 14-year-old girl. Dalton was working as an Uber driver during the spree, telling investigators that the Uber app took over his body.

Shooter name: Jason Brian Dalton, 45 (alleged)

Gun details: Walther P99 9mm handgun, Glock 19 9mm handgun

Gun acquired: Both guns used in the shooting were purchased from a licensed dealer.

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence that Dalton was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence that Dalton exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: There is no evidence to suggest that any of the three locations was a gun-free zone.

Chesapeake, VA, 01/27/2016

Cameron Dooley, 26, fatally shot his mother, father, brother, sister, and grandmother between two homes. He then fatally shot himself.

Shooter name: Cameron Dooley, 26

Gun details: Handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest Dooley was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest Dooley exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shootings took place between two private homes.

San Bernardino, CA, 12/02/2016

Married couple Syed Rizwan Farook, 28, and Tashfeen Malik, 29, fatally shot 14 people and shot and injured 22 more at Farook's office holiday party. Farook and Malik fled in a vehicle, but were shot and killed by pursuing police officers. The FBI investigated the incident as terrorism, suggesting that Farook and Malik may have been inspired by ISIS.

Shooter names: Syed Rizwan Farook, 28, and Tashfeen Malik, 29

Gun details: Five firearms were used in the attack: two 9mm handguns, two .223-caliber assault rifles, and a .22-caliber rifle.

Gun acquired: Three of the guns were purchased legally by Farook between 2007 and 2012. The other two were purchased by Farook's friend and former neighbor in 2011 or 2012.

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Farook or Malik were prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Farook or Malik exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified for a GVRO.

Not a Gun-free zone: The shooting took place at the Inland Regional Center, which is a state-run facility for individuals with developmental disabilities, including children. According to California law, the carrying of firearms is prohibited in state or local public buildings. However, concealed carry permit holders are exempt from this prohibition. Everytown found no other evidence that firearms were prohibited in the facility.

Palestine, TX, 11/14/2015

William Hudson, 33, allegedly shot and killed six people at a campsite. Hudson lived next to the campsite, and appeared to know the victims, though the motive for the shooting is unclear.

Shooter name: William Hudson, 33 (alleged)

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest Hudson was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: In the month before the shooting, Hudson was arrested for assault after an incident at a local convenience store.

Not a gun-free zone: The campsite was privately owned; there is no evidence to suggest that firearms were prohibited on the land.

Pendleton, SC, 11/01/2015

Four family members were fatally shot in the Pendleton home where they lived. The identity of the shooter(s) is unknown.

Shooter name: Unknown

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Unknown

GVRO red flag: Unknown

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Roseburg, OR, 10/01/2015

Christopher Harper-Mercer, 26, fatally shot nine people and shot and injured nine more during an English class at Umpqua Community College. Two responding police officers engaged Harper-Mercer in a shootout, hitting him once in the right side. Harper-Mercer then went back into the classroom and fatally shot himself.

Shooter name: Christopher Harper-Mercer, 26

Gun details: Harper-Mercer had five handguns and one rifle at the scene of the crime. Seven more guns were found at Harper-Mercer's home.

Gun acquired: According to ATF, all of the guns recovered were purchased legally, either by Harper-Mercer or his family members.

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Harper-Mercer was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Harper-Mercer exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: Concealed carry permit holders were allowed to carry firearms on the Umpqua Community College campus.

Platte, SD, 09/17/2015

Scott Westerhuis, 41, fatally shot his wife and their four children before setting their home on fire and fatally shooting himself.

Shooter name: Scott Westerhuis, 41

Gun details: Shotgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence that Westerhuis was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence that Westerhuis exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Greenwood, NM, 9/10/2015

Brian Short, 45, fatally shot his wife and their three children –ages 13, 15, and 17 –before fatally shooting himself. The shooting took place in the family's home.

Shooter name: Brian Short, 45

Gun details: Remington 870 Express 12-gauge shotgun

Gun acquired: Short legally purchased the gun at a local gun store 4 days before the shooting.

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence that Short was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest Short exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Harris County, TX, 08/08/2015

David Conley, 49, allegedly shot and killed the woman he formerly lived with, her husband, and her six children in his former home. Conley was arrested after a standoff with police.

Shooter name: David Conley, 49 (alleged)

Gun details: 9mm handgun

Gun acquired: Conley reportedly bought the gun online in a private sale within two weeks of the shooting.

Prohibiting criteria: Conley was likely prohibited from possessing firearms due to a lengthy criminal history, including a 1989 conviction for aggravated robbery and auto theft, and a 1994 conviction for possession of a controlled substance.

GVRO red flag: In July 2015, the woman Conley ultimately shot and killed called police claiming that Conley had threatened to strike her son with a belt, and pushed her head against the refrigerator multiple times.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Barre, VT, 08/07/2015

Jody Herring, 40, allegedly shot and killed a social worker in a public parking lot. She then allegedly shot and killed her aunt, and two of her cousins in their home.

Shooter name: Jody Herring, 40 (alleged)

Gun details: Remington 700 .270-caliber rifle

Gun acquired: Herring stole the rifle from her ex-boyfriend.

Prohibiting criteria: Herring was prohibited from possessing firearms. She had a lengthy criminal record with 11 misdemeanor convictions, including heroin possession, petit larceny, and driving under the influence. Approximately 5 months before the shooting, Herring, on two separate dates, attempted to buy handguns from two licensed dealers in Vermont. On both occasions, the dealers denied her after requesting background checks.

GVRO red flag: Approximately a week before the shooting, Herring told her ex-boyfriend that she was going to “shoot some people”. Her ex-boyfriend told investigators that Herring had a “hit list”.

Not a gun-free zone: The shootings took place between a public parking lot and a private home, neither of which are gun-free zones.

Chattanooga, TN, 07/16/2015

Mohammad Abdulazeez, 24, fired from a vehicle into an Army/Navy recruitment center. He then traveled to the U.S. Naval Reserve where he fatally shot four marines and one sailor, and shot and injured two others, including a police officer. Ultimately, he was fatally shot by responding police.

Shooter name: Mohammed Youssuf Abdulazeez, 24

Gun details: AK-47-style assault rifle, shotgun, 9mm handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Abdulazeez was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: Approximately 3 months before the shooting, Abdulazeez was charged with a DUI. Abdulazeez's relatives also attempted to have him admitted to an in-patient drug and alcohol program.

Gun-free zone: Abdulazeez fired at the Army/Navy recruitment center from the parking lot. Under Tennessee law, permit holders are allowed to keep guns in their cars in public and private parking lots. Under Department of Defense regulations, it is likely that most service members and personnel at the US Naval Reserve were prohibited from carrying firearms. But, this prohibition would not have applied to authorized personnel, including those acting as security personnel or law enforcement. Media reports suggest that there was at least one service member on the premises who had a personal firearm and used it to fire at Abdulazeez.

Holly Hill, SC, 07/15/2015

An unknown assailant entered a residence and fatally shot two teenage girls, an adult male, an adult female, and shot and injured a child.

Shooter name: Unknown

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Unknown

GVRO red flag: Unknown

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Charleston, SC, 06/17/2015

Dylann Roof, 21, fatally shot nine people during Bible study at the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Shooter name: Dylann Roof, 21

Gun details: .45 caliber Glock handgun

Gun acquired: Roof bought the gun at a licensed gun store in April 2015.

Prohibiting criteria: In the six-month period before the shooting, Roof was convicted for misdemeanor trespass and was facing a charge of misdemeanor possession of a controlled substance. Though neither the trespassing conviction nor the drug arrest would have caused him to fail a gun background check, the police report of the drug arrest contained evidence that he was an admitted unlawful user of a controlled substance. According to the FBI, that admission prohibited him from possessing firearms, so when he tried to purchase a handgun at a licensed gun dealer and underwent a background check, the FBI operator would have denied the sale had they had the record. The FBI operator did delay the sale of the gun used in the shooting to examine the details of the drug arrest, but they did not locate the police report within the three-business-day limit provided under law, and after that period elapsed, the gun dealer lawfully sold Roof the gun.

GVRO red flag: According to the police report from his 2015 arrest, Roof was an unlawful user of a controlled substance. This is echoed by one of Roof's high school classmates, who also identified him as a heavy drug user.

Gun-free zone: According to South Carolina law, the carrying of handguns is generally prohibited in churches and other religious sanctuaries.

Columbus, OH, 06/12/2015

Robert Lee Adams, 27, fatally shot a man, his daughter, and two other victims inside the man's home. He also shot and injured a 16-year-old girl. Adams was accompanied by a 16-year-old boy who helped rob the victims, but did not shoot them.

Shooter name: Robert Lee Adams, 27

Gun details: Handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Adams was prohibited from possessing firearms due to a 2008 conviction for armed robbery.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Adams exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Missoula, MT, 06/07/2015

Michael Bournes, 59, fatally shot his wife and their three children—ages 1, 4, and 5—in their home. He then set the house on fire and fatally shot himself.

Shooter name: Michael Bournes, 59

Gun details: .45-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Despite a previous criminal history, Bournes was likely not prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Bournes exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Waco, TX, 05/17/2015

A brawl between rival biker gangs escalated into a shootout in which nine bikers were fatally shot and 18 others were shot and injured. Police engaged in the shootout and fired on the bikers.

Shooter names: Multiple unknown shooters

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Unknown

GVRO red flag: Unknown

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in the parking lot around a restaurant. There is no evidence to suggest that the parking lot prohibited the carrying of firearms.

Tucson, AZ, 05/13/2015

Christopher Carrillo, 25, fatally shot his parents, his brother, and his niece in the family's home. He then fatally shot himself.

Shooter name: Christopher Carrillo, 25

Gun details: 9mm handgun

Gun acquired: Carrillo legally purchased the gun five days before the shooting.

Prohibiting criteria: Carrillo was not prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest Carrillo exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Phoenix, AZ, 05/13/2015

Driss Diaddinne, 50, fatally shot his mother, two brothers, and a sister-in-law in the home they all shared. He then fatally shot himself.

Shooter name: Driss Diaddinne, 50

Gun details: Handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Diaddinne was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Diaddinne exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Indianapolis, IN, 03/24/2015

An unknown assailant shot and killed a woman, her cousin, her son, and a friend of the family in a home.

Shooter name: Unknown

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Unknown

GVRO red flag: Unknown

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Tyrone, MO, 02/26/2015

Joseph Jesse Aldridge, 36, drove from house to house in his neighborhood, fatally shooting two of his cousins, their wives, and three unrelated neighbors. He shot and injured another neighbor. He fled the scene and ultimately shot and killed himself in his car.

Shooter name: Joseph Jesse Aldridge, 36

Gun details: .45-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Aldridge was prohibited from possessing firearms due to a 2008 felony conviction for possession of a firearm by an unlawful user of a controlled substance.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Aldridge exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shootings took place in private homes.

Douglasville, GA, 02/07/2015

Cedric G. Prather, 33, went to the home where his ex-wife lived and fatally shot her, their two sons, and the ex-wife's new boyfriend. He also shot and injured two other children, and then fatally shot himself.

Shooter name: Cedric G. Prather, 33

Gun details: .45-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Prather was prohibited from possessing firearms due to a 2011 felony conviction for possessing cocaine.

GVRO red flag: Prather's ex-wife had asked a judge for a temporary protective order in August 2013, alleging that Prather had forced his way into her locked home and sexually assaulted her.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

La Grange, GA, 01/31/2015

Thomas Jesse Lee, 26, fatally shot his wife, mother-in-law, father-in-law, and a teenage family friend in the home he shared with his wife's family. Lee also strangled and killed his stepdaughter.

Shooter name: Thomas Jesse Lee, 26

Gun details: .22-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Lee was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Lee exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

San Francisco, CA, 01/09/2015

An unknown assailant fatally shot four young men while they sat in a parked car on the street.

Shooter name: Unknown

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Unknown

GVRO red flag: Unknown

Not a gun-free zone: In California, persons with a concealed carry permit may carry a concealed firearm in a car and on a public street.

Rockford, IL, 12/20/2014

Calvin Carter, 22, allegedly shot and killed his ex-girlfriend, her boyfriend, and her two children—ages 4 and 6.

Shooter name: Calvin Carter, 22 (alleged)

Gun details: .45 caliber handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence that the shooter was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest Carter exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Souderton, PA, 12/15/2014

Bradley Stone, 35, fatally shot his ex-wife, mother-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, and grandmother-in-law. He also fatally stabbed his niece and stabbed and injured his nephew before killing himself with a drug overdose.

Shooter name: Bradley Stone, 35

Gun details: .40-caliber handgun, 9mm Beretta

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: It is unclear if Stone was prohibited from possessing firearms. He was arrested and charged for a third DUI offense in 2013, admitted to Veteran's Treatment Court, and sentenced to 23 months of supervision. He agreed not to possess firearms as a condition of his admission to the treatment program, though it is unclear whether Stone would have failed a criminal background check.

GVRO red flag: Stone has several DUI arrests on his record, including one about 18 months before the shooting.

Not a gun-free zone: The shootings took place between three private homes.

Morgantown, WV 12/01/2014

Jody Lee Hunt, 39, fatally shot four people at three different locations: a business rival at his towing company, his ex-girlfriend and her new boyfriend in their shared home, and his cousin at his home. Hunt then fatally shot himself in his vehicle.

Shooter name: Jody Lee Hunt, 39

Gun details: 9mm handgun

Gun acquired: ATF traced the shooter's gun to a Monongalia County resident, who sold Hunt the 9mm handgun in an unlicensed transfer one year prior to the shooting. He was able to purchase the handgun in a private sale after responding to an ad for the gun posted on Facebook. Authorities do not believe that Hunt and the seller previously knew each other, and the seller was not charged with a crime.

Prohibiting criteria: The shooter was prohibited from possessing firearms due to multiple felony convictions. In 1999 in Virginia, he was convicted of felony kidnapping for abducting a former girlfriend and holding her hostage at gunpoint.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Hunt exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: Three of the victims were killed in private homes. There is no evidence to suggest that the towing company had a specific policy prohibiting firearms on the premises.

Cleveland, OH, 11/21/14

James Sparks-Henderson, 19, allegedly shot and killed his close friend, a woman who was seven months pregnant, and two other victims inside a residence. He also allegedly shot and injured a nine-year-old girl.

Shooter name: James Sparks-Henderson, 19 (alleged)

Gun details: 9mm handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: The shooter was prohibited from possessing firearms due to a 2010 felony conviction for aggravated robbery.

Prohibiting criteria: Bennett was prohibited from possessing firearms. According to media reports, in 2010, he received a prison sentence for charges of theft, forgery, and being a felon in possession of a firearm, but was paroled on March 4, 2013.

GVRO red flag: Bennett received regular drug tests as a condition of his parole. He failed a drug test in prison in 2012 and again several months before the shooting, indicating that he had an ongoing drug problem.

Not a gun-free zone: There is no evidence that permit holders were prohibited from carrying guns in this area.

Oklahoma City, OK, 08/14/2013

Daniel Green, 40, allegedly shot and killed four of his family members, including a 4-month-old infant, in the family's home.

Shooter name: Daniel Green, 40 (alleged)

Gun details: .380-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: The handgun used in the shooting belonged to one of the residents of the house.

Prohibiting criteria: Though Green had a history of mental illness, there is no clear evidence to suggest that he was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: Although his family reported some alcohol abuse in the past, the timeframe for this is unclear, so it is unclear if Green would have qualified for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Dallas, TX, 08/07/2013

Erbie Lee Bowser, 44, allegedly shot and killed his ex-girlfriend and her daughter, and injured two others. Then, in a separate shooting, he allegedly shot and killed his estranged wife and her daughter, and injured two other children.

Shooter name: Erbie Lee Bowser, 44 (alleged)

Gun details: .380 handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Bowser was prohibited from possessing firearms. He had a domestic violence charge, but it was expunged from his record after he completed a court program for veterans in the summer of 2012.

GVRO red flag: According to Bowser's estranged wife, he shoved her and threatened to kill her in January 2011.

Not a gun-free zone: The shootings took place between two private homes.

Clarksburg, WV, 07/26/2013

Sidney Muller, 27, fatally shot four people after an argument related to a drug debt. Muller was trying to collect $10,000 two men owed him for drugs when one of them aimed a handgun at him. Muller reportedly stripped the man of the weapon and used it to kill both men; he then fatally shot a father-son newspaper delivery team that happened to be outside the house.

Shooter name: Sidney Muller, 27

Gun details: 9mm Beretta handgun

Gun acquired: Gun apparently belonged to one of the victims

Prohibiting criteria: Muller had been convicted previously for driving under the influence and had been arrested for driving with a suspended license, but was not prohibited from possessing firearms. Muller was also a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps and his lawyer indicated he had scored four out of five on a post-traumatic stress disorder test and had been diagnosed as bipolar. There is no evidence his mental illness rose to the level of prohibiting him from possessing guns.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence that Muller exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home, and in the area directly outside the home.

Hialeah, FL, 07/26/2013

Pedro Alberto Vargas, 42, fatally shot the building manager of his apartment complex, the manager's wife, a bystander across the street, and three more occupants before police fatally shot him in a standoff.

Shooter name: Pedro Alberto Vargas, 42

Gun details: Glock 17 9mm semiautomatic handgun

Gun acquired: Vargas obtained a concealed weapons permit in the fall of 2010. In October 2010, he passed a background check and legally purchased a Glock 17 handgun, the firearm used in the shootings.

Prohibiting criteria: Vargas was not prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: The shooter had developed a pattern of anonymously harassing his former co-workers online, and was confronted about it three days before the shooting. His mother also expressed concerns about her son's behavior on a 911 call hours before the shooting, suggesting that he needed a psychiatric evaluation.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place within an apartment complex.

Santa Monica, CA, 06/07/2013

John Zawahri, 23, fatally shot his father and brother, burned down their house, and shot and wounded a passing driver who tried to intervene. He then carjacked another vehicle and made the driver transport him to Santa Monica College, firing at a city bus and police cruiser along the way, injuring three. Once on the college's campus, he shot and killed three people outside and fired several rounds at individuals in the library before he was shot and killed by police.

Shooter name: John Zawahri, 23

Gun details: AR-15-style assault rifle, .44-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: Law enforcement sources believe that the assault rifle was put together from various parts, possibly in an attempt to circumvent California's restrictions on such guns.

Prohibiting criteria: Zawahri was not prohibited from possessing firearms. He had a history of mental illness and had previously been held for a short-term psychiatric evaluation, which would have prohibited him from possessing a firearm for five years, but the prohibition expired in 2011.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Zawahri exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Gun-free zone: Part of the shooting took place at Santa Monica College, which prohibits the carrying of firearms by virtue of being a college in California.

Fernley, NV, 5/13/2013

Jeremiah Bean, 25, fatally shot five people over a three-day spree, in connection with multiple burglaries. Bean fatally shot an elderly couple in their Fernley, NV home, and proceeded to steal their jewelry and their truck. On his way to California, Bean fatally shot another man and stole his truck. He then returned to Fernley, where he broke into another home, stole a handgun, and fatally shot and stabbed two of the home's residents.

Shooter name: Jeremiah Bean, 25

Gun details: .22-caliber handgun, .38-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: It is unknown how Bean acquired the .22-caliber handgun; he stole the .38-caliber handgun from the residence of his last two victims.

Prohibiting criteria: As a convicted felon, Bean was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: Bean's friend and former roommate told police that Bean once broke a window in his house with a rock or brick. He also said that Bean was a heroin user.

Not a gun-free zone: The shootings took place between two private homes, and on a highway overpass.

Waynesville, IN, 5/11/2013

Samuel Earl Sallee, 55, fatally shot four people in a home. He had initially gone to the home attempting to trade a gun for drugs. A confrontation ensued, resulting in the shootings.

Shooter name: Samuel Earl Sallee, 55

Gun details: .22-caliber rifle

Gun acquired: The gun used was owned by Sallee's son. Sallee had borrowed the gun about a year before the shooting and never returned it.

Prohibiting criteria: Sallee was prohibited from possessing firearms due to several prior felony convictions, including for intimidation.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Sallee exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Ottawa, KS, 04/28/2013

Kyle Flack, 27, raped and fatally shot a woman at a farm in eastern Kansas. He also fatally shot her 18-month-old daughter, and two men who were with her at the farm.

Shooter name: Kyle Flack, 27

Gun details: 12-gauge shotgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: In 2005, Flack was convicted of attempted murder in the 2nd degree. This conviction prohibited him from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence that Flack exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Manchester, IL, 04/24/2013

Rick Odell Smith, 43, broke into a home and fatally shot the grandmother of his child and four of her family members, including two young children. Another young girl was shot and injured. Smith was subsequently shot and killed in a firefight with law enforcement.

Shooter name: Rick Odell Smith, 43

Gun details: Shotgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Smith was likely prohibited from possessing firearms, as he had been previously convicted for reckless homicide, along with drug possession and writing bad checks.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Smith exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Federal Way, WA, 04/21/2013

Dennis Clark III, 27, fatally shot his girlfriend inside the apartment they shared and then fatally shot two men in a nearby parking lot. When a neighbor called 911, the shooter broke down the man's door with a shotgun and killed him. He was subsequently shot and killed by police.

Shooter name: Dennis Clark III, 27

Gun details: .40-caliber handgun, shotgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Clark was not prohibited from possessing firearms; he had a permit to carry a concealed weapon.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Clark exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place inside two private homes and a public parking lot.

Akron, OH, 04/18/2013

Derrick Brantley and Deshanon Haywood fatally shot four people inside a townhouse; the initial motive for the crime was robbery.

Shooter name: Derrick Brantley, 21, and Deshanon Haywood, 21

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Both shooters were likely prohibited from possessing firearms due to their criminal histories. Brantley was free on bond awaiting trial on felony charges for heroin trafficking. Haywood was paroled from prison in February 2012 after serving part of a two-year sentence for cocaine trafficking and heroin possession. He immediately violated his parole and was sentenced to 45 days of house arrest.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest either shooter exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Herkimer, NY, 04/13/2013

Kurt Myers, 64, fatally shot two people and wounded two people at a barbershop, and then fatally shot two more people at a car service center. He was fatally shot by responding officers.

Shooter name: Kurt Myers, 64

Gun details: Shotgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Myers was prohibited from possessing firearms. He was arrested in 1973 for drunk driving.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Myers exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The car service center, Gaffey's Fast Lube, does not have a specific policy prohibiting guns. The barbershop, John's Barbershop, did not reopen following the shooting, but there is no evidence to suggest it had an explicit firearm policy or ban.

Albuquerque, NM, 1/19/2013

Nehemiah Griego, 15, fatally shot his parents and three siblings in their home. Griego was apprehended by police after speaking with the pastor of a local church and the church's head of security.

Shooter name: Nehemiah Griego, 15

Gun details: AR-15 assault rifle, .22-caliber rifle

Gun acquired: The guns were kept in Griego's parents' closet, and appear to belong to Griego's father.

Prohibiting criteria: As a juvenile, Griego was prohibited from purchasing firearms, but it was lawful for him to possess long guns like those used in the shooting.

GVRO red flag: A neighbor of Griego's saw him exhibit violent and threatening behavior a few months before the shooting. He observed Griego pretending to cut a dog's throat with an open knife in his hand, and then performing a similar gesture on his younger brother.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Tulsa, OK, 01/07/2013

During a robbery, Cedric Dwayne Poore and James Stanford Poore fatally shot four women in an apartment. A 3-year-old boy was in the apartment at the time of the incident but was unharmed.

Shooter names: Cedric Dwayne Poore, 39, and James Stanford Poore, 32

Gun details: .40-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Both shooters had extensive criminal histories: Cedric Poore received a 35-year prison sentence in 1995 for armed robbery, and James Poore received a 12-year sentence in 2000 for armed robbery with a firearm. Both were released in 2011, but likely remained prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that either shooter exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Newtown, Connecticut, 12/14/12

Adam Peter Lanza, 20, fatally shot his mother in her home and then traveled to a nearby elementary school where he shot twenty-eight people, killing twenty-six of them, including twenty children. He then fatally shot himself.

Shooter name: Adam Peter Lanza, 20

Gun details: A Bushmaster .223 assault-style rifle was used in the attack at the elementary school. A 10mm Glock handgun, a 9mm SIG Sauer handgun, and a shotgun were also recovered at the crime scene.

Gun acquired: The guns were legally registered to Lanza's mother, who he shot and killed earlier in the day and with whom he lived.

Prohibiting criteria: Under Connecticut law, Lanza would have been prohibited from possessing handguns because he had not reached the legal age, 21. However, he would not have been prohibited from possessing a long gun like the Bushmaster rifle used in the shooting. Lanza's mental health was also scrutinized after the shooting, and while his social isolation had been noted, there is no evidence that concerns had been brought to the attention of a public authority.

GVRO red flag: Lanza displayed symptoms of psychological distress, but there was no evidence that he voiced or gave indication that he intended to commit a crime prior to the shooting.

Gun-free zone: The shooting took place in an elementary school, which is a gun-free zone according to federal law.

Tule River Reservation, CA, 12/08/2012

Gun details: Glock 9mm handgun

Gun acquired: The handgun was legally purchased from a Minneapolis gun store.

Prohibiting criteria: Engeldinger had a concealed carry permit and was not prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Engeldinger exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: There is no evidence to suggest that the signage business had a specific policy prohibiting employees from carrying firearms on the premises.

Oak Creek, WI, 08/05/2012

Wade Michael Page, 40, fatally shot six people at a Sikh temple and injured three others, including a responding police officer, before fatally shooting himself.

Shooter name: Wade Michael Page, 40.

Gun details: 9mm semiautomatic handgun

Gun acquired: Page legally acquired the gun at a local gun shop a week before the shooting.

Prohibiting criteria: Page was not prohibited from possessing firearms. He received a less than honorable discharge from the army and was demoted from sergeant to specialist, but this did not affect his access to firearms. Federal officials investigated Page's ties to supremacist groups more than once prior to the shooting, but did not collect enough evidence to open an investigation.

GVRO red flag: Page received a citation for driving while impaired in North Carolina in 2010. Despite this, there is no evidence to suggest he suffered from ongoing alcohol abuse, and so would likely not qualify for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: Wisconsin state law permits people to carry guns in places of worship unless there is a sign or they have been personally notified that carrying firearms is prohibited by the property owner or occupant. Amardeep Kaleka, whose father founded the temple and was killed during the attack, confirmed that there was no such sign on the property.

Aurora, CO, 07/20/2012

James Holmes, 24, fatally shot 12 and injured 70 in an attack on a suburban movie theater during a midnight screening of the new Batman movie.

Shooter name: James Holmes, 24

Gun details: Smith & Wesson M&P15 assault rifle, Remington 870 12-gauge shotgun, and two Glock .40-caliber handguns.

Gun acquired: Holmes legally acquired the guns at local gun shops.

Prohibiting criteria: Holmes was not prohibited from purchasing firearms. While a student at the University of Colorado, he was treated by the school psychiatrist, who expressed concern about his behavior and referred him to the university Behavioral Evaluation and Threat Assessment (BETA) team. They took no further action and he was never adjudicated mentally ill. He had no prior criminal record.

GVRO red flag: On March 16th, he told a social worker that he had regular thoughts of killing people. During a psychiatric examination on March 21, 2012, Holmes indicated that he thought about homicide three to four times daily. He repeatedly expressed homicidal ideations to a variety of mental health professionals.

Gun-free zone: In Colorado, businesses determine whether concealed carry permit holders can carry guns on their private property. The Cinemark theater in Aurora was a gun-free zone.

Newton Falls, OH, 07/06/2012

Robert Brazzon, 55, fatally shot his girlfriend, another couple, and their son in two separate shootings. He was then cornered by police and fatally shot himself. Brazzon was allegedly a heavy user of illegally obtained prescription drugs, and thought that his girlfriend and the man he killed were stealing pills from him.

Shooter name: Robert Brazzon, 55

Gun details: Unknown

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Brazzon had previously pled guilty to felony drug trafficking charges. In 1999, police found 47 guns, 100,000 rounds of ammunition, homemade bombs, 7,400 pills, and $27,000 cash inside his home. He was also convicted of domestic violence in 1984, and of sexual battery and gross sexual imposition in 1987. But due to Ohio laws that provide for the restoration of felons' firearm rights, it is unclear whether Brazzon was prohibited from possessing firearms at the time of the shooting.

GVRO red flag: Brazzon was a heavy user of illegally obtained prescription drugs. Investigators found that Brazzon consumed painkillers, Valium, and heroin on the day of the shootings.

Not a gun-free zone: The shootings took place between two private homes.

Tempe, AZ, 06/02/2012

Seattle, WA, 5/20/2012

Ian Lee Stawicki, 40, fatally shot four people and wounded one in a restaurant. Less than an hour later, he fatally shot a woman in a parking lot, stealing her car. Later in the afternoon, as police officers closed in on him, Stawicki shot and killed himself.

Shooter name: Ian Lee Stawicki, 40

Gun details: Two .45-caliber semi-automatic handguns

Gun acquired: Stawicki was a concealed carry permit holder, and bought the guns used in the shooting legally.

Prohibiting criteria: As a concealed carry permit holder, Stawicki was not prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: Approximately two years before the shooting, Stawicki was charged with misdemeanor assault for attacking his brother, but prosecutors dropped the charges. Stawicki's father and brother said that he had battled mental illness for a long time, but they never pushed for a mental health intervention.

Gun-free zone: According to Gun Free Seattle, Cafe Racer, where the first shootings took place, is a gun free zone.

Leivasy, WV, 05/19/2012

James Roy Belknap, 27, fatally shot a man, his girlfriend, and his two children after a dispute over a debt for drugs.

Shooter name: James Roy Belknap, 27

Gun details: Shotgun

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: In 2007, Belknap pled guilty to charges of conspiracy to deliver cocaine and was sentenced to 1 to 5 years in prison. In exchange, prosecutors dismissed a grand jury indictment charging him with murder. He was therefore prohibited from possessing a gun.

GVRO red flag: Belknap had a history of drug abuse, and illegally purchased prescription drugs from one of the shooting victims.

Not a gun-free zone: The victims were shot in their car while it was on Belknap's property.

Port St. John, FL, 5/15/12

Shooter name: Tonya Thomas, 33

Gun details: Taurus .38-caliber revolver

Gun acquired: Thomas legally purchased the gun used in the shooting from a local licensed gun dealer.

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest Thomas was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest Thomas exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified her for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Gilbert, AZ, 05/02/2012

Jason Todd ("J.T.") Ready, 39, fatally shot four people including his girlfriend, her daughter, and her granddaughter, before fatally shooting himself. Ready was a former member of the U.S. Marine Corps, and a founder of a border militia group. At the time of the incident, he was running for the office of Pinal County Sheriff.

Shooter name: Jason Todd ("J.T.") Ready, 39

Gun details: Two handguns and a shotgun were found at the scene.

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Ready was prohibited from possessing firearms.

GVRO red flag: On February 28, 2012, Ready's girlfriend went to police headquarters and told police about two domestic violence incidents. But no charges were filed, and Ready's girlfriend did not go to court to file for an order of protection.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Oakland, CA, 04/02/2012

One L. Goh, 43, allegedly shot and killed 7 people at a Oikos University, a Christian college affiliated with a Korean-American church, where he had formerly been a student.

Shooter name: One L. Goh, 43 (alleged)

Gun details: .45-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: Goh legally bought the handgun at a gun store in California in early 2012.

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence that Goh was prohibited from possessing firearms; he was able to legally purchase a firearm in early 2012.

GVRO red flag: Though Goh reportedly had disputes with his classmates and administrators at Oikos University, there is no evidence to suggest that he exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Gun-free zone: According to California law, the carrying of firearms is generally prohibited on private or public college or university campuses.

Norcross, GA, 2/20/2012

Jeong Soo Paek, 59, fatally shot two of his sisters and both of their husbands before fatally shooting himself. The shooting took place in a health spa which Paek had invested in.

Shooter name: Jeong Soo Paek, 59

Gun details: .45-caliber handgun

Gun acquired: Paek legally purchased the gun in Maryland in 2002.

Prohibiting criteria: Paek does not appear to have been prohibited from possessing firearms. In 2006, he was arrested on charges of simple battery for striking one of his sisters in the face, but the charges were ultimately dropped.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest Paek exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Shooter name: Tyrone Adair, 38

Gun details: Two handguns were found inside the vehicle where Adair died, one believed to be the same caliber used in the shootings.

Gun acquired: Police reported that Adair bought one of the guns, a 9mm handgun, on the online site Craigslist.

Prohibiting criteria: Adair was prohibited from possessing firearms due to an active restraining order involving a third woman.

GVRO red flag: Approximately a year and a half before the shooting, Adair got into a fight with one of the women he eventually shot. Charges were referred to the District Attorney, but were not filed.

Not a gun-free zone: The bodies were found in the garage of a duplex and the trunk of a car. There is no evidence that either of the shootings took place in an area where the carrying of firearms was prohibited.

Lakewood, WA 11/29/2009

Maurice Clemmons, 37, fatally shot four police officers in a coffee shop. He eluded capture for two days before being shot and killed by police.

Shooter name: Maurice Clemmons

Gun details: Glock 17 9mm handgun, Smith and Wesson .38-caliber revolver

Gun acquired: The Glock 9mm was reported stolen in Seattle approximately three years before the shooting. The .38-caliber revolver could not be traced. It is not known how Clemmons came to possess either weapon.

Prohibiting criteria: Clemmons was prohibited from possessing firearms due to a long history of felony convictions. Just six days before the shooting, he was released on bail in connection with a child rape charge.

GVRO red flag: In an interview with investigators, Clemmons' cousin indicated that Clemmons threatened to kill police officers on Thanksgiving, days before the shooting.

Not a gun-free zone: There is no evidence that the coffee shop prohibited the carrying of firearms. The police officers were armed at the time of the shooting.

Osage, KS, 11/28/2009

James Kahler, 46, fatally shot his estranged wife, her grandmother, and their two daughters in the grandmother's home.

Shooter name: James Kahler, 46

Gun details: .223-caliber assault rifle

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that Kahler was prohibited from possessing firearms. In March 2009, he was charged with misdemeanor domestic assault, but the case had not yet been adjudicated at the time of the shooting.

GVRO red flag: Kahler's wife alleged abuse in the past, including a New Year's Eve 2008 fight during which Kahler pushed her hard enough that she hit her head on the street.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Jupiter, FL, 11/26/2009

Paul Merhige, 35, fatally shot his two sisters, his aunt, and his 6-year-old cousin during a Thanksgiving celebration. Two other family members were shot and injured. Merhige fled the scene and eluded capture for over a month before police arrested him.

Shooter name: Paul Merhige, 35

Gun details: Semi-automatic handgun

Gun acquired: According to media reports, Merhige bought two handguns and a rifle from a licensed gun dealer in Fort Lauderdale the day before the shooting, although it is unclear if any of the handguns were the gun he used in the shooting.

Prohibiting criteria: According to media reports, the shooter was involuntarily committed to mental health facilities at least three times in the decade before the killing, which, according to state, federal, and county officials, prohibited him under federal law from possessing guns. According to press reports, however, the relevant records were not submitted to the NICS database.

GVRO red flag: Although Merhige had a history of mental illness, there is no evidence to suggest that he exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified for a GVRO.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Pearcy, AR, 11/12/2009

Three shooters—Samuel Conway, 23, Marvin Lamar Stringer, 22, and Jeremy Pickney, 23—fatally shot five people in connection with a robbery. Surviving family members reported missing guns, tires and rims, televisions, and two checkbooks. Stringer was shot and killed by police officers as they attempted to enter his hotel room; one officer was shot and injured in the exchange. Conway and Pickney were arrested during traffic stops.

Shooter names: Samuel Conway, 23; Marvin Lamar Stringer, 22; and Jeremy Pickney, 23

Gun details: .22, .25, and .45-caliber handguns

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: There is no evidence to suggest that the shooters were prohibited from possessing firearms.

Not a gun-free zone: The shootings took place on a private residence.

Oklahoma City, OK, 11/09/2009

Multiple shooters fatally shot four people in a house before setting the house on fire. Two of the victims were pregnant. Four men have been convicted for planning and committing the crime—David Allen Tyner, Jonathan Allen Cochran, Denny Edward Phillips, and Russell Lee Hogshooter. The shooting was tied to a drug-related robbery.

Shooter names: David Allen Tyner, Jonathan Allen Cochran, Denny Edward Phillips, and Russell Lee Hogshooter. All four men were in their thirties.

Gun details: .40 caliber & .380 caliber handguns

Gun acquired: Unknown

Prohibiting criteria: Phillips was prohibited from possessing firearms due to a lengthy criminal history including multiple felony convictions. Phillips was convicted in 1996 for assault with a deadly weapon, and other crimes including a jail escape. He was also convicted in 2010 for possession of a firearm by a felon. Cochran was prohibited because of a conviction for second degree burglary in 2002. There is no indication that Tyner or Hogshooter were prohibited, though they were reportedly involved with a local gang.

GVRO red flag: In the months leading up to the shooting, the conspirators discussed the crime in front of multiple witness.

Not a gun-free zone: The shooting took place in a private home.

Fort Hood, TX, 11/05/2009

Nidal Malik Hasan, 39, fatally shot 13 and wounded 32 soldiers during an attack at the Fort Hood army base.

Shooter name: Nidal Malik Hasan, 39

Gun details: An FN Herstal 5.7 semiautomatic handgun was used in the attack. A Smith and Wesson .357 revolver was also recovered.

Gun acquired: The FN Herstal 5.7 semiautomatic handgun used in the attack was purchased legally at a local gun store.

Prohibiting criteria: Hasan was investigated by the FBI for ties to terrorist organizations, but the inquiry was reportedly closed in early 2009. Hasan was not prohibited from possessing firearms, and bought the gun used in the attack legally.

GVRO red flag: There is no evidence to suggest that Hasan exhibited recent behavior that would have qualified him for a GVRO.

Gun-free zone: Due to Department of Defense regulations, it is likely that most personnel at the Fort Hood army base were prohibited from carrying firearms. But this prohibition would not have applied to authorized personnel, including those acting as security personnel or law enforcement. It is unclear from news reports the extent of armed law enforcement presence at the base.

Mount Airy, NC, 11/01/2009

Marcos Chavez Gonzalez, 29, fatally shot four people outside a television store before eventually surrendering to police.
